		were called in just after 10:00 p.m., where they found two bodies inside: 22-year-old Paul Murdaugh and his mother, Maggie Murdaugh. Their bodies were found by Maggie's husband and Paul's father, Richard Alexander Murdaugh.
Pilar is working on her laptop. TITLE: Pilar Melendez Journalist, The Daily Beast	01:05:07	PILAR (VO/ON) The investigation into their murders was extremely closed. Authorities were being very tight-lipped about what evidence they had gathered, how they exactly they even had died. It was all very shrouded in mystery.
Andrew in an interview. TITLE: Andrew Davis Reporter, WSAV-TV	01:05:20	ANDREW (OS/ON) While the Murdaugh family owned hundreds of acres in this area, the people who are their neighbors wouldn't talk much about the family or exactly what happened, just saying that they were good people. When the murders happened, the town stopped talking completely. It was truly this sort of ghost town feel of, "We can't say anything about it because either we're scared, or we know too much, or we could be next."
	01:05:47	FORMER MURDAUGH EMPLOYEE (VO/ON) You felt the dome over this little county starting to crack. And since that time, it pretty much has broken wide open.
Photos of Paul.	01:05:56	(camera shutter clicking)
	01:05:59	FORMER MURDAUGH EMPLOYEE (VO) Paul did some bad stuff. None of that warrants being killed that way. And I think

Anthony in an interview. Photo of Anthony and Paul. TITLE: Anthony Cook Paul Murdaugh's Friend	01:06:40	ANTHONY (VO/ON) In my opinion, you couldn't ask for a better childhood than Hampton, small town. You know, that's not what a lot of people like, but I wouldn't have it any other way. Me and Paul, we started hanging out probably when I was in fifth or sixth grade. Couldn't ask for, you know, a better friend. One of our favorite things to do was go to the river. Everybody's got boats, so, you know, you just call somebody and go. So us six did that a lot, for hours. (chuckles)
Shot of kids jumping on the river. Pilar in an interview. Photo of Anthony and Mallory. Photo of Connor and Miley. Photo of Paul and Morgan.	01:07:22	PILAR (VO/ON) They were all childhood friends. 		Doughty and her boyfriend Paul Murdaugh. A very South Carolina group of friends that would do a lot of outdoor activities together.
Joe in an interview. TITLE: Joe McCulloch Cook Family Attorney	01:07:47	JOE (VO/ON) In the Lowcountry, you go fishing, and you go boating, and sometimes those activities may involve a little bit of alcohol consumption as well.
CCTV footage of Paul entering the store. TITLE: FEBRUARY 24, 2019 TWO HOURS BEFORE THE BOAT TRIP	01:07:57	(tense music)
	01:08:10	JOE (VO/ON) So provisions were made by some of these kids to get beer and to get alcohol. Paul Murdaugh used his older brother's ID.
CCTV footage of Paul enters and drives off the car.	01:08:24	ANDREW (ON/VO) He'd walked out and then lifted the 12-packs up over his head in celebration.
	01:08:41	JOE (VO/ON) And off they went in the Murdaugh boat and headed towards a destiny that they could not possibly have imagined.

	01:32:10	JOE (VO/ON) Strikes me as a bit odd that the Department of Natural Resources would not have trailers, since I would assume that agency has hundreds of boats. It's a little astonishing that a family member could get anywhere near the scene of the crime.

Jim Griffin Murdaugh Defense Attorney		was facing literally 55 years in prison.
SUBTITLE: This relates to a boating under the influence charge with the death of Mallory Beach.	01:37:52	WOMAN This relates to a boating under the influence charge with the death of Mallory Beach.
Footage of the boat crashing into the bridge. Jim reads the statements of the witnesses.	01:37:59	JIM (VO/ON) The big question became, who was driving the boat when it hit the bridge? Based upon the evidence, there's no way the state could have proved Paul was driving the boat at the time of the collision. I say that based upon written statements by these witnesses. Paul's girlfriend said, "Paul drove. He was very intoxicated as well as Connor. We putted around until Connor took over. We slammed into the bridge." Anthony Cook says, "Paul got defensive and started yelling at everyone else, so Connor tried to calm everyone down and let him drive the boat." It's interesting what Connor Cook said at the hospital. The officer asks, "Connor, who was driving the boat at the time of the collision?" Connor says, "I don't know." "Connor, who was driving the boat at the time of the collision?" "I don't know."
Christine and Marty in an interview.	01:38:56	CHRISTINE (VO/ON) I said, "Connor, is there any chance that you were driving the boat?" And he's like, "What, Mom? No."

	01:39:13	MARTY (VO/ON) It was devastating to know that somebody that was supposed to be that good of a friend of mine would be willing to try to sacrifice my child to save his. Oh, it brought me to reality.
Footage of Paul's hearing. SUBTITLE: He does not have a record. These are serious charges though, and we ask that a fair and appropriate bond be set given the seriousness of the charges, Your Honor.
	01:39:37	NEWS REPORTER (VO) Murdaugh's bond was set by presiding judge Steven S. John at $50,000.
Andrew in an interview.	01:39:42	ANDREW (VO/ON) It was the moment after the judge said yes, the charges were going to stand that the bailiff came with handcuffs and Paul's eyes lit up. They got big, and they went, "Somebody's coming with handcuffs to handcuff me. Who do they think they are?"

Mug shot of Paul.	01:40:01	ANDREW (VO/ON) And they stopped it. The lawyers were able to stop it. And it doesn't make any sense that you didn't get that, that he never spent a moment not in a jail cell, even, but getting booked. They took his mug shot in the hallway of the courthouse, and he walked out that day. And I think that's rubbed a lot of people the wrong way. What you got from a lot of people was, "It's the Murdaughs. Nothing's going to happen."
Pilar in an interview.	01:40:39	PILAR (VO/ON) I think it was shocking to a lot of people in Hampton County that he was even charged with a crime and shows how serious this crime was. But even though he was waiting to stand trial, a lot of people didn't think it was actually gonna happen.
Jim in an interview.	01:41:00	JIM (VO/ON) A lot of people felt that there was too much delay and that Paul's able to go to college. He was bullied a fair amount. He would walk into class, and people would blow the horn at him and yell at him and just cuss him and shoot him the bird. A lot of people in the public thought there will not be any justice until Paul gets convicted.

Footage of Maggie and Paul's funeral service.	01:42:51	NEWS REPORTER (VO) In the Lowcountry, a community gathered for funeral services being held for 52-year-old Maggie and her 22-year-old son, Paul Murdaugh.
Jim in an interview.	01:43:02	JIM (VO/ON) There were so many people there, and my wife was afraid for our safety going to the funeral. And she was concerned about law enforcement being there, because we didn't know what had happened.

And then for Paul, they had a partner at the law firm, and in his first remarks, he mentioned that he actually hadn't seen Paul in a while. So the guy that they have speak for Paul was a law firm member who hadn't seen Paul in a while. I don't know if people really got

Photo of Paul and his brother. Photo of Paul with his family.	01:44:01	KIMBERLY (VO/ON) Anything he did or said ever was gonna be scrutinized, maybe, by his family, because you have to be this way. You have to act this way. I think Anthony almost felt sorry for him for some of that, because every little thing you do is based upon who you are.
SUBTITLE: Did you go to Paul's funeral?	01:44:25	INTERVIEWER (VO) Did you go to Paul's funeral?
Anthony in an interview.	01:44:28	ANTHONY (ON/VO) No. No. It was--I wanted to, but I figured there was probably a little bit--too much drama would be involved. You know, and I've made my peace without having to go to the funeral.
	01:44:50	KIMBERLY (VO/ON) Anthony has since told us that one of the days out at the bridge that Paul did make contact with him.
	01:44:58	ANTHONY (VO/ON) He looked at me dead in my eyes when...there wasn't nobody paying attention and apologized and said, "You know I love you," and I said, "I love you too, and I--you know, it's all good," and I had to walk away. But that was it. A lot of people try to make it out like it never really fazed him, but it did. He knew deep down.

	01:46:04	NEWS ANCHOR (VO) Still no arrests more than a week after the mother and son from an influential South Carolina family were shot and killed.
	01:46:10	NANCY (ON/VO) I think this may very well be related to the death of Mallory Beach. People begin to think another Murdaugh is gonna get away with something. So what was the motivation other than anger or revenge?
	01:46:24	JIM Many people, me included, thought that this was the act of some delusional vigilante.
	01:46:33	NANCY My instincts tell me that this was a targeted hit meant for the young victim, 22-year-old Paul Murdaugh. Two weapons were used, a shotgun and an assault rifle. Now, I find it very difficult to believe that unless you're a Hollywood actor pretending you're carrying two long guns that one person did this.
